

AVIATION RULEMAKING ADVISORY COMMITTEE
ON TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS ISSUES

Meeting Minutes

Date: September 11, 1997

Place: Regional Airline Association, 1200 19th St. N.W., Washington, DC.

PUBLIC NOTIFICATION: On August 12, 1997 an announcement of this meeting was published in the Federal Register 62FR43195.

MEETING SUMMARY: The Aviation Rulemaking Advisory Committee (ARAC) on Training and Qualifications Issues convened on September 11, 1997, in Washington, DC at 12:00 noon with remarks by Walter Coleman, Assistant ARAC Chair for the Training and Qualifications Issues Group. Ruth Ann Hodges, Acting ARAC Assistant Executive Director for the Training and Qualifications Issues Group, read the required Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA) statement.

The following is a synopsis of discussions held at the meeting:

Page two of the July 8, 1997 meeting minutes has been amended to correct the voting status of the Airline Pilots Association to vote in favor of the Air Carrier Pilot Pay for Training Study.

A status report from the Air Carrier Pilot Preemployment Screening Standards Criteria Working Group was provided Richard (Dick) J. Nelson of the University of North Dakota. Dick discussed the development of the working group's task, survey requirements, meeting schedule, scope of the study.

Gerald Goldstien of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Mr Goldstien asked that the following considerations be made in developing the Air Carrier Pilot Preemployment Screening Standards Criteria study:

- The term psychomotor motor skills had not been defined and that the working group should provide a definition in the study.
- Insure that the study takes into consideration the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and that the definition does not exclude individuals affected by ADA

As an unscheduled agenda item, Walt Coleman, Assistant ARAC Chair and President of the Regional Airline Association, advised ARAC that it had received a harmonization task regarding Flight Crew Licensing Harmonization Terms of Reference (TOR). Because the TOR had not been mentioned in the meeting agenda published in the Federal Register it was agreed that a telecon would be conducted to discuss the TOR and comment or vote of acceptance or non acceptance of the task.

The telecon was scheduled for September 29, 1997 at 12:00 noon at the Federal Aviation Administration.

On September 29, 1997, an ARAC Training and Qualifications Issues group telecon was conducted, the vote in favor of accepting or rejecting the TOR went as follows:

In favor of accepting TOR	Against accepting the TOR
Aerospace Industries Association - via fax
Air Line Pilots Association - via fax
Airline Dispatchers Association - via fax
Allied Pilots Association - via fax
Association of Flight Attendants - via fax
Association of Professional Flight Attendants - via fax
Flight Dispatchers - via fax
Air Transport Association - via fax
Independent Pilots Association - via fax
Regional Airline Association
Teamsters Airline Division - via fax

I certify that the above minutes are accurate.

Walter S. Coleman
Assistant ARAC Chair
